JULY 2018

THIS MONTH

IDENTITY

In Matthew 16:13, Jesus asks Peter, "Who do people say that I am?" In our society, we are often in great danger of allowing ourselves to be identified and defined by unreliable or superficial factors. We assess our own intrinsic value, or lack thereof, according to our personal wealth or the social standing afforded us by our occupation or title. We draw identity 'status points' from what others think or say about us, even from the number of 'likes' or comments our most recent social media post has attracted.

But, who am I? Who am I really, when no one is looking? Charles Finn famously penned the line, "I wear a thousand masks that I'm afraid to take off, and none of them is me". Many of us live in abject fear that people will discover what we are really like, and that they will reject us. But the good news of the gospel is that God accepts us as we are, then sets about transforming us from within. It's only when I see myself as God sees me that I discover who I really am. And it's only then that I can fulfil the destiny for which God has created me. – Nick Scott

Coolbellup Update

One cannot believe that it is the middle of the year already. With all of that in mind, one naturally reflects on where one is at – successes, failures, etc. When reflecting on what has taken place over the last year at Cooby, we need to boldly say, "God has been at work, to God be the glory!"

It has been a time of much activity, much interaction in the community of Coolbellup and much time spent in developing relationships with people. People have been praying, lives have been changed and we have seen the hand of God touch people's lives. We have enjoyed having new people come and feel the "safety" of the congregation. Again, to God be the glory, great things He has done! – Peter Christofides.

Marriage Course

The Marriage Course is for any married couple who wants to invest in their relationship – whether you have been married one year or sixty-one years, whether your relationship is strong or needs strengthening.

When: Thursday evenings 7.15pm – 9.30pm | 9 Aug – 20 Sept inclusive.

What It Means To Be A Woman In Today's Culture

SATURDAY 28 JULY

Enjoy a time of fun, friendship, worship, talk by Patricia Weerakoon, Q & A and a delicious supper in the usual Essence style. This is for all women 15 years and older – single or married. While women in our culture are expected to be independent, strong and self-reliant, they are also pressured to comply with sexualized images of womanhood.

Patricia will speak on the topic of women and where they place their identity; what gender roles women are expected and willing to live by. How does this affect life and relationships? Being aware of these issues will help us navigate through life and support others as we journey together.

Book Shop open and hot drinks available from 7.00pm. Cost $15 – register online:

mounties.org.au/sexuality or at the Info Point on Sundays

The highlight of the weekend is expected to be the Sunday Morning Communion when silence is broken and people share quite powerfully their journey over the weekend.

With just over 2 weeks to go before we officially open Infuse Cafe, it's all go in the kitchen!

Our Cafe Manager Nicole Smith has been working tirelessly to ensure everything is in place for our grand opening Tuesday 17 July, 2018.

The Cafe will be a link for church and community; it will provide great coffee and tea along with home cooked brunch styled meals in a welcoming environment. In the week leading up to the grand opening Nicole and Pauline would greatly appreciate the patronage of the church community to gain some experience. The cafe will be open to the church with the full brunch menu available Monday 9 July through to Friday 13 July, 7am - 2pm. Please keep the Cafe in your prayers.

PIE Night

Our last PIE Night on Saturday 23 June was actually a very successful breakfast, with guest speaker Mark Purser, Chaplain to the Essendon Footy Club. After a kick of the footy there was a delicious breakfast of cereals, fruit, yoghurt, juice and warm drinks. Mark then shared some inspiring stories about his previous involvement with the Adelaide Crows players and more recently his role with Essendon.

Wow, what a crucial role he plays in these teams as their Chaplain.

Our next speaker is Dr Patricia Weerakoon and she will speak on "Purity, in a Pornified World" explaining what it means to be 'pure' in thought and action. Men of all ages welcome. This will be on Thursday 26 July, 7.00-9.00pm

Friday 10 August

Keynote Speaker: Dr John Dixon
